

A woman with long brown hair is standing in a courtyard, wearing a vibrant red ensemble. She is wearing a long, sheer red cardigan with intricate gold embroidery along the edges and small gold star-like motifs scattered across the fabric. Underneath, she wears a red top and matching red trousers. Her outfit is complemented by gold-colored flat shoes. She is posing with one hand on her hip and the other holding the hem of her cardigan. The background features a large, ornate mirror, a tall palm tree, and a white building with arched windows. The floor is made of light-colored stone tiles. A white label with the text 'St 254' is overlaid on the image.
